

An aerial photograph of a residential neighborhood. The houses are mostly single-story bungalows with various roof colors and exterior materials. There are several mature trees scattered throughout the area. A paved road runs through the center of the neighborhood. In the bottom right corner, there is a large green rectangular overlay. Inside this overlay, there is a detailed map of the neighborhood showing house numbers and specific locations. To the left of the map, there is a legend with four colored boxes: blue, red, green, and yellow. The blue box is labeled 'Reserved', the red box is 'Available', the green box is 'Under Contract', and the yellow box is 'Occupied'. Below the legend, there is a small diagram of a house with arrows pointing to different parts, labeled 'Takes Back Vacant Only' and 'Maintenance Only'. The word 'Section C' is printed in large, bold, black letters across the middle of the green overlay.
